

WEINERT HOUSE INN POLICIES

We want you to enjoy your time at the Weinert House and for comfort, safety and necessity the following tells you about our policies. Please read these and e-mail these policies back stating that you have read and agree to them.

- We serve a gourmet breakfast each morning at a time you choose and have noted whether or not you have restrictions as to diet.
- We are a non-smoking property with a $250 penalty for non-adherence.
- We will process your credit card for one night's stay immediately; cancellation must be made by talking to the innkeeper in person on the phone 15 days prior to arrival or refund. E-mails and voice messages are not acceptable.
- Our check-in times are between 2 and 7 PM unless we have made special arrangements with you and we ask for a specific check-in time so we can greet you and make you welcome. Checkout is 11 AM.
- We freshen your room daily, providing fresh towels and room straightening for your comfort.
- We offer complimentary glasses of wine to our guests and ask that in helping yourself you are considerate of the others staying at the Inn.
- Our complimentary bottled water and soft drinks are to be enjoyed on property. Our supply is not intended to be used to fill ice chests for travel or river tubing.
- Should you prefer red wine, we request extra care be taken as stain damage can easily occur to linens and furniture for which you will be responsible.

- We inspect and inventory each room upon guest departure. Should we find missing or damaged items, including linens, your credit card will be charged accordingly. The minimum charge is $50 and we can provide receipts for damage costs above that should you desire.
- $30 is charged for lost keys.

You will find phone numbers to reach us posted in your room. Don't hesitate to call us anytime should you need something or assistance. We appreciate you staying with us.

I have read and agree to the above:
